

What do you say when you're asked,

“What do you do?”

Here are some verbiage ideas...

1. I partnered with the Juice Plus Company to help families get more nutrition in their bodies!
2. I'm a wellness advocate helping families get more nutrition into their lifestyle.
3. I'm a mom who partnered with a company who found a way to easily get 20-30 fruits and veggies into our diets!
4. I'm a franchise owner in the health industry - my passion is helping families improve their physical health while also increasing their financial wealth.
5. I work with a company who's mission is to spread healthy living around the world. By making little changes you can take your health back.
6. I own an online franchise that helps other families bridge the nutritional gap so many of us have.
7. I get to be home with my kids while sharing health with other moms online.
8. I partner with a wellness company and I get to share how making a few simple changes can really transform my friends' lives.
9. I partner with a company that's figured out how to put fruits and veggies in a capsule.
10. I have a home based business helping families get healthy that offers a nutritional component.
11. You know how we are supposed to get 9-13 servings of veggies a day and we just don't? I locked arms with a company who has created a way to bridge that gap in a matter of seconds.
12. I own a franchise and get to inspire healthy living around the world!!!
13. I tell my 30 second product story and say that we had such a wonderful experience I naturally started sharing it and now I work from home doing this full time and love it!
14. I own my own business and work from home helping people get healthier and dream again.